Informs His Constituents Th. He Will Go to Wash-

ABERDEEN. SCOTLAND, December 2

James Brycs, who is to succeed 8

Mortimer Durand as British amisassadi at Washington, has given his constituent here the first definite information of his selection for the Washington post in letter which they have just received. I this communication Mr. Bryce said the the appointment will compel him to giv up his seat for South Aberdeen.

The retirement of Mr. Bryce causes genuine regret, as his scholarly qualities made him peculiarly qualified to represent the constituency which has the reputation of being the most intellectual in the United Kingdom, as Aberdeen enjoys the unusual distinction of not having one illiterate voter.

No plans have yet been made for the choice of a specessor of Mr. Bryce in Parliament, but it probably will be made from the literary class.
